The Senior Executive Leaders Program

Please contact the center for more information on the next offering.

Fee: $7,450 includes tuition, program materials, accommodations for three nights, and most meals and breaks.

What got you here may not be enough to take you where you're going. As leaders ascend and prepare for increasingly senior executive and C-suite roles, the leadership equation needs to be rebalanced.

The Senior Executive Leaders Program has been designed to maximize the leadership capacity of new C-suite executives, senior vice presidents, and other leaders with significant and broad responsibilities in their organization.

Program sessions tailor customized feedback, deliver insights from global experts, provide tools and techniques that leaders can use immediately with their teams, and opportunities to pretest new behaviors and strategies.
